HARBIN, China, Sept. 3 /PRNewswire-Asia-FirstCall/ -- China Sky One Medical, Inc. ("China Sky One Medical" or "the Company") (Nasdaq: CSKI), a leading fully integrated pharmaceutical company in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), today announced that its fiscal year 2010 revenue and adjusted net income, excluding the impact of derivative warrant liabilities, are expected to be lower than its previous financial guidance as a result of the termination of several major distributor relationships.

Specifically, the Company has lowered its 2010 revenue guidance from a prior range of $160 million and $164 million to between $128 million and $136 million. The Company also has lowered its 2010 adjusted net income guidance, excluding the impact of derivative warrant liabilities, from between $40 million and $41 million to between $26 million and $31 million.

Management's reduced guidance reflects the termination of relationships with certain private distributors, who after several rounds of discussions, chose to end their cooperation with the Company after learning that their business information was disclosed in the Company's public SEC filings and would continue to be disclosed in such documents as required by SEC regulations. This disclosure, these distributors claim, has led to increased scrutiny of their financial performance by government authorities within China. While the Company expects to replace these lost distribution arrangements over time, revenue and net income in the second half of 2010 are expected to be negatively impacted by the disruption in distribution channels. The Company expects to incur higher selling and marketing costs during second half 2010 to develop new distributor relationships.

Separately, the Company announced the resignation of its CFO, Mr. Stanley Hao, due to health considerations, effective September 01, 2010. Mr. Hao will retain his position as Company Director and Board Secretary. Mr. Yu-kun Zhang, the Company's Principal Financial and Accounting Officer, will continue to oversee the accounting and finance functions, while the Company actively searches for a new CFO.

"We are disappointed with the decision by several of our larger distributors to end their cooperation with China Sky One," commented Mr. Yan-Qing Liu, Chairman and CEO of China Sky One Medical. "We expect to recoup this lost business over time by building new relationships with reputable provincial and national distributors. In addition, we want to thank Stanley Hao for his contributions as Chief Financial Officer and look forward to his continued contributions in a role that will allow him to address his health issues. We are actively seeking a qualified successor with a strong background in US GAAP accounting and the capital markets to provide effective leadership for our finance team and support China Sky One's future expansion."
